Bowling's American Newspaper Directory for 1891 puts the circulation of THE ROANOKE TIMES above that of any other paper in Southwest Virginia, and at more than that of all the other papers of Roanoke combined.

ROANOKE, VA., JULY 19, 1894.

DEBS, like Coxey, will soon tire of jail life and be sorry that he ever attempted to pose as a martyr.

Town lots will show an upward tendency again in Minneapolis in consequence of the brilliant record made by the United States cruiser which bears the name of the thriving metropolis of the North-west.

THOSE Senators who several weeks ago predicted that the tariff bill would become a law by the first of this month reckoned, it seems, without their host.
The sturdy determination not to accept unqualifiedly the action of the Senate in the revise of the Wilson bill has seriously retarded the work of the conference and made the situation appear as if no compromise could be agreed upon.
The country is still patiently waiting for some kind of a measure, and it is to be hoped that the members of both branches of Congress will bear this fact in mind and act quickly in this matter.

A SUMMARY of the railroad construction for the first half of this year shows a big falling off over the corresponding time of last year, and from present indications it appears that not over 1,500 miles will be built in this country during this season. In twenty-three States no new tracks have gone down during the past six months. In seventeen only a single line has been added in each, the largest mileage having been laid in Colorado, 54 miles in all being put down.
In no year since 1865, when civil war checked progress, has so insignificant a total been made as will be shown this year. In 1893 the construction amounted to 2,635 miles, in 1892 to 4,300 miles and in 1887 it reached nearly 13,000 miles. The above figures show that the business depression has been felt very extensively by the railroads of the country, but it may mean a decided increase in new roads when business revives.

NO LONGER is the work of suppressing the Indians looked upon as the chief occupation of the United States regulars. Lo's fighting proclivities have been softened by frequent skirmishes with the bronzed troopers of the Western plains and he has settled down to a life of ease and comfort in which he draws his rations regularly and receives enough money to get hold of an occasional bottle of fire water. Just now the calls for interference from the United States bluecoats come from the larger cities and it is in this vicinity that the standing army is to be garrisoned in the future. The riots at Chicago have proven this necessity, and in following out General Schofield's pet scheme, General Miles will mass his command at Fort Sheridan, fifteen miles from Chicago, while the other troops in the West will be corralled at the Presidio, near San Francisco, Fort Snelling, near St. Paul, and at Vancouver barracks, near Seattle. If the disturbances in the future arise from the same sources as those in the recent past, the wisdom of this movement will be manifested.

THE Discovery Saved His Life.
Mr. G. Callouton, druggist, Beavers-ville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with a gripe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail, and was given up, and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at

GARDEN CONCERT AT MONTVALE.

An Enjoyable Affair Held There Tuesday Night.

MONTVALE, July 18.—While the rain gave indications of interfering with the garden concert held here last night, the ground and stage were beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The programme consisted of an overture by Misses V. Harpold and K. Buford; recitation, Miss Peck; vocal duet, Julien Cox and Miss Buford; piano solo, Miss Kitty Buford; recitation, Miss Peck; vocal solo, Miss Vena Harpold; recitation, Master Jno. Luck; boat song, Julien Cox and Miss Buford; recitation, Miss Peck; O. P. R. A. comic quartette, "Professor," Mr. Bowman, "Prima Donna," Miss Buford, "Dutchman," Mr. Julien Cox, "Irish girl," Miss Betty Buford.

It is not often one enjoys in a country village a treat so rare as was given upon this most delightful occasion. Miss Harpold's musical and well trained voice was fully appreciated. Miss Kitty Buford showed plainly that the piano was her forte. Mr. Bowman's bass and Mr. Cox's tenor accorded well with the soprano and alto of the Misses Buford.
Master John Luck, a rising elocution-ist of Roanoke, outdid himself, and Miss Peck, who enjoys the reputation of being second only to Mrs. Strother, of Lynchburg, exceeded expectations.

It was, however, the beautiful "O.
P. R. A." that brought down the house.
Even the second rendering brought forth a lusty cheer. Refreshments were served in a most tempting manner. The proceeds, about $55, will go toward repairing the Presbyterian Church.

The ladies are profoundly grateful for public patronage, and to those who so kindly aided the enterprise.

GALEN H. COON INDICTED.

Twenty-two Counts Against Him for Misappropriation of Funds.

The special grand jury that was in session Tuesday afternoon and yesterday made a report of the work accomplished so far to Judge Wood's yesterday afternoon. Galen H. Coon, who for several years was the Roanoke agent for the Bankers' Loan and Investment Company, of New York, was indicted in twenty-two counts—eight for felony and fourteen for larceny.

Without going into particulars it may be stated that the charges are for feloniously appropriating money to his own use, belonging to the company and to other parties while managing the affairs of the Bankers' Loan and Investment Company in this city. It is understood that Mr. Coon is at Norfolk at present. The jury also indicted Henry Noel for a felonious assault.

The case of the commonwealth vs.
Thomas S. Kennerly was again called at 8 o'clock yesterday morning and was postponed until 4 o'clock, but was not reached. Some disposition will probably be made of it today.

The special grand jury will assemble again this morning at 9 o'clock.

Excursion to Atlantic City, Cape May and Sea Isle City, the World's Fair and Seaside Resorts.

On Thursday, July 19, the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will inaugurate the series of popular excursions from Lexington and all intermediate stations to Washington Junction, Md., to Atlantic City, Cape May and Sea Isle City, giving the excursionist a choice of the three greatest seashore resorts in the country.
For the excursion on July 19 the same low rates and unexcelled train service, which have made these jaunts to the sea so popular in past summers, will be in effect.

Tickets will be valid for return journey for twelve days from day of sale, and will be good on all regular trains.
On return journey they will be good to stop off at Washington, thus affording an opportunity to see Congress in session, to visit the numerous public buildings, which are open to visitors free of charge, and to take a trip down the Potomac to Mt. Vernon, the tomb of the immortal Washington, as well as to visit other places of interest in or near Washington.

For more detailed information apply to nearest Baltimore and Ohio agent.

Save the Children

By Purifying Their Blood

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes Pure Blood, Cures Scrofula, Etc.

"My experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla has been very effective. My little girl, five years old, had for four years a bad skin disease. Her arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. She would scratch the eruptions as though it gave relief, and tear open the sores.

Two Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla caused the eruptions to heal and the sores peeled off, after which the skin became soft and smooth. As a family medicine

MOONLIGHT LAWN FETE.

A Successful Event in Charge of the Ladies Aid Society of St. John's Church.

The lawn fete given last night by the Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Church, on the lawn of the residence recently vacated by Major Jos. H. Sands, at the corner of Twelfth avenue and Commerce street, was as successful as its most sanguine friends had hoped for.

The grounds were filled with rustic seats and the blended light from the half veiled moon, the distant street lamps and the kaleidoscopic glow of a hundred Japanese lanterns cast on the animated throng of visitors, made a charming scene.

Within the house the most delicious coffee, sandwiches, ice cream and cake was dealt out generously to the patrons of the festival who showed their hearty appreciation by their eagerness to buy.
A pleasant feature and one which added not a little to the success of the evening was the reveral selections admirably rendered by the Roanoke Banjo and Guitar Club, who were heartily applauded and encored.

The whole affair was in charge of the officers of the society, Mrs. Hugh W.
Fry, Mrs. R. H. Soule, Mrs. Malcolm W. Bryan and Miss Watts, assisted by Misses Rogers, Massie, Terry, Kindred, Preston, MacDowell, Riffe, Davis, Johnson, Hall, Hilleary, and a score of others. The festival will be repeated at the same place Saturday night, and the proceeds of both entertainments will be devoted toward the liquidation of the indebtedness of the church.

A HORSE kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freemeyer House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days he was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by the Charles Lyle Drug Company, druggists.
